GENERAL INFORMATION SHEET

Who’s Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities is a national program recognizing college students for outstanding leadership, scholarship and service. Each Fall semester outstanding students are invited to submit applications for this recognition opportunity. Applications are screened and faculty/staff from various departments make selections.

Eligibility and Selection

The Who’s Who Among American Colleges and Universities program seeks to recognize the most outstanding students from each campus. Selection is based on an application using a point system, which gives consideration to your academic and non-academic achievements, as well as campus and community involvement. Categories considered are:

• GPA based on the official copy of your transcript that is provided in application packet
• Campus and Student Organization Involvement
• Honors & Awards
• Volunteer/Community Service
• Two (2) Letters of Recommendation: (One (1) letter of recommendation MUST be from a University official)
• Resume

All applicants will be notified of their status in the selection process.

Please carefully read the entire contents of this document before completing the attached application. It is very important that the application is complete and all information must be legible in order to be considered.
